Chapter Tactics:

If Gabriel Angelos is taken as an HQ choice, then all Space Marines exchange the Combat Tactics rule with Stubborn and Counter-Attack

My Faith is my Shield:

This ability applies only to Imperial allies. Gabriel stands as a shining beacon of the Emperor's faith and fury among his brothers in arms, inspiring them to fight on with greater vigor. Every model in a unit joined by Gabriel gains a 5+ invulnerable save. This ability does not apply to units that already have an invulnerable save that are either innate or from wargear. Conversely, all Chaos-aligned units within 24" of him, enemy or ally, suffers from a -1 Ld deduction, to a minimum of 6.

Retribution:

Gabriel fights to redeem his chapter, the Blood Ravens, from the sins of their former Chapter Master in the eyes of the Emperor and the Imperium, and will go through great lengths to see that fulfilled. This ability automatically gives Gabriel the "Feel No Pain" special rule.

Taste the Fury of the Blood Ravens!

Gabriel burns with zealotry whenever he is in the field of battle. Whenever he is deployed to the field as reinforcements via deep strike: he and his retinue can assault on the same turn they enter the field and gain Furious Charge on their initial charge, they may only do this if they did not run or shoot in the preceding shooting phase however.

Options:

May replace Plasma Pistol with:

Master-Crafted Bolt Pistol.....Free

Inferno Pistol.....+15 pts

May Replace Power Sword with:

Godsplitter.....+20 pts

God Splitter is a Master-Crafted Thunder Hammer with the following profile:

| Weapon | Range | S | AP | Type |
|---------------|--------------|----------|-----------|---|
| God-Splitter | - | x2 | 2 | Melee, Concussive, Specialist Weapon, Unwieldy, My Foe Shall Fall!* |

My Foe Shall Fall!:

Gabriel may instead of his regular attacks perform the following attack:

Gabriel swings his Daemonhammer with all his might at a single enemy, causing massive damage to his target but he may only make 1 attack. Roll a d6 when assaulting, if the result is 1-2: his attack will automatically miss. If the result is 3-4: his attack will count as normal, but roll an additional d3 for armour penetration. If the result is 5-6, his attack counts as S10, rolls another 1d6 for armour penetration, and Gabriel's target cannot use armor saves for the duration of the game (including against this attack).
